śrīvanāntareśvara

Commentary

The inscription consists in nothing more than the name Śrī Vanāntareśvara, presumably the deity for whose cult this dish was intended to be used. The name figures elsewhere only in C. 145, but cf. also the word vanānthara (sic) in C. 4, face A, l. 4. Although the text contains not a single Cam morpheme, in the absence of Sanskrit case morphology, we classify the language as Old Cam.
