Bibliography

This stone was probably among the group of sixteen inscribed stones at Pasru Jambe reported by Soekmono (1962). It seems that no attempt was made to decipher their contents until the first readings published by Sukarto Atmodjo (1986). These inscriptions were republished in a later survey of the Archaeological Service by Titi Surti Nastiti et al. (1994–1995). Re-edited here by Muhamad Alnoza and Arlo Griffiths from photographs (2011).
