Summary

The king is given the attribute “who was pleased to take every country”. The inscription is mutilated and incomplete. The date portion preserved is 2[1] year . . . śu 7, Friday, Aśvati (probably Junuary 16, A.D. 1293). The object of the record is to register a gift of nine mā and odd of land, to the temple of KAlakāladēva by one Saduraṉ Kēśavapperumāḷ of the village Śeḻuvattur in Pāṇḍimaṇḍalam after purchasing the same and getting it made tax-free by the Sabhā of TirukkaḍavUr. The land appears to have been previously endowed for a flower garden to a PiḍAri temple by the same donor, and passed on to private ownership subsequent to the 13th year of Perumāḷ Sundara-Pāṇḍya. The details however are not clear.
