Commentary

The editor states that the inscription is “[u]nintelligible” (1948, p. 332) but does not make clear how big the missing parts might be (confer line 2). The number of missing characters follows the number of dots in the edition.

Bibliography

The inscription was noted in A. R. No. 396 of 1904 and first edited by J. Ramayya Pantulu without translation and picture (1948, p. 332, № 603). K. M. Sastri re-edited this edition and provided a summary of the content: “Refers to the endowment of a tank. A Cōḷamahādēvi is mentioned” (Sastri 1969, p. 333).
